GENERAL OBLIGATIONS OF THE SCHOOL

The admission and enrolment of learners to the School is at the sole discretion of the School who may not grant the Learner admission to the School and may grant temporary or provisional enrolment to the School subject to such further terms and conditions which the School may impose. The School may, after following due process, cancel enrolment in accordance with the Rules.

For the sake of clarity, this Contract regulates the enrolment and admission of the Learner to the School and also regulates the relationship between the School, the Learner, the Parents and/or a Third Party once the Learner is admitted and enrolled with the School. Subject to clause 0, nothing in this Contract should be interpreted as a representation or warranty made by the School that the Learner will be admitted to and enrolled with the School.

While the Learner remains a pupil of the School, the School undertakes to exercise reasonable skill and care in respect of their education and welfare. This obligation will apply during school hours and at other times when the Learner is permitted to be on School premises or is participating in activities organised by the School.

Unless the Parents write to the School in advance with the specific purpose to withhold their consent, the Parents consent to the Learner:

taking part in supervised School activities. These activities may include contact sports and sports or activities with some risk of physical injury; travelling to supervised School activities that take place outside of School premises.

The School will take reasonable care to avoid loss, damage, injury or death to the Learner. The School will not be responsible for any loss, damage, harm, injury or death that results from the Learner taking part in any School activities.

The School shall monitor the Learner's progress at the School and produce regular written reports. The School will advise the Parents if the School has any concern about the Learner's progress, but the School does not undertake to diagnose any learning disability or other condition: a formal assessment can be arranged either by the Parents or by the School at the Parents' expense.

The Parties take cognisance of the limitations of the School's physical environment, facilities and resources which limit its ability to provide high quality education to Learners with special educational needs (whether due to neurological barriers, hearing impairments, visual barriers, physical barriers, behavioural, psychological or emotional barriers or any other medically assessed special need). To the extent that, in the reasonable opinion of the School, in their capacity as professionals and experts in education and after following due process, the School cannot, or can no longer, provide adequately for the Learner's special educational needs, the School may not offer enrolment with the School or may cancel this Contract in terms of clause 0.

DISCLAIMERS AND INDEMNITY

The School does not take any responsibility for any theft or loss of, or damage or destruction to any property of whatever nature (including School clothing, sporting and IT equipment, books, or any other personal possessions) brought on to the School premises by the Learner/s, unless the School or its staff are in physical possession of that property and damage occurs to that property either because:

the School or its staff treated the property as their own; or the School or its staff did not exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that can reasonably be expected of a person responsible for managing property belonging to another person, when handling, safeguarding or using the property.

The Parent indemnifies and holds harmless the School, the Board, the Head of School and the employees as well as their authorised agents and/or representatives against actions, proceedings, claims, demands, liabilities, losses and reasonable costs and expenses whatsoever in respect of, or in connection with damage or loss to property, real or personal, and injury to persons, including injury resulting in death, arising out of or as a consequence of the Learner's enrolment at the School, save that the School shall be liable and liability will not be excluded under this clause 0 in respect of loss occasioned by gross negligence and/or wilful misconduct attributable to the School, the Board, the Head of School and the employees as well as their authorised agents and/or representatives.

Unless you expressly notify us in writing to the contrary, you consent to the Learner/s participating, under proper supervision, both in and outside the School, in sports and other activities (including contact sports) which may entail some risk of physical injury, as well to the Learner travelling to and participating in School activities and programmes outside the School. Subject to the School taking reasonable care to avoid harm and save for any gross negligence on the part of the School, its employees or agents, the School is not responsible for loss or damage resulting from such sports, activities or programmes and you indemnify the School against any claims in that regard.

PARENT'S GENERAL OBLIGATIONS

The Parents will inform the School in writing, prior to admission and enrolment, of any special educational needs of the Learner known to you, of the kind referred to in clause 0.

In order to fulfil the School's obligations, the School needs the Parents' co-operation without detracting from any specific obligations contained in this Contract, the Parents are required to: fulfil the Parents' own obligations under these terms and conditions; encourage the Learner in his or her studies, and give appropriate support at home; keep the School informed of matters which affect the Learner; maintain a courteous and constructive relationship with School staff; and attend meetings and otherwise keep in touch with the School where the Learner's interests require the Parents to do so.

The Head of School may, if it is justifiable to do so and after following due process, require the Parents to remove or may suspend or expel the Learner if the Parents' behaviour is in the reasonable opinion of the Head of School so unreasonable as to affect or likely affect the progress of the Learner or another learner (or other learners) at the School or the well-being of the School staff or to bring the School into disrepute.

The Head of School may, if it is justifiable to do so, require the Parents to remove or may suspend or expel the Learner from the School, if he/she considers that the Learner's attendance, progress or behaviour (including behaviour outside School) is seriously unsatisfactory and in the reasonable opinion of the Head of School the Learner's removal is in the School's best interests or those of the Learner, other learners or the wider School community. In this case, the Parents will be asked to remove the Learner at a specified date that may be shorter than a full Term. Should the Head of School exercise this right, all or a part of the Deposit will be forfeited where:

the School is unable to fill the vacancy created by the Learner; and the School has incurred, or will incur, reasonable costs for administering the Learner's enrolment or removal from the School.

When the Head of School contemplates the possibility of removal or expulsion of a Learner under clauses 0 or 0, it should follow a fair process (which may include a hearing) to solicit representations on the Learner's best interests and right to a basic education.

The School rules set out examples of offences likely to be punishable by suspension or expulsion. These examples are not a closed list and a Learner may be expelled or suspended for offences which are not included in these examples. In particular, the Head of School may, subject to applicable law, decide that suspension or expulsion for a lesser offence is justified where there has been previous misbehaviour by the Learner, or the circumstances of the case otherwise justify such action.

If, subsequent to entering into this Contract, the Learner does not take up a place at the School (save for by reason of death or long term hospitalisation) the Parents will not be refunded the Administration Fee. The Administration Fee will be kept by the School as a reasonable cancellation fee for the School's costs in administering, processing and handling the Learner's application.

If the Deposit is not payable and subsequent to entering into this Contract, the Learner does not take up a place at the School (save for by reason of death or long term hospitalisation) and the School cannot, by the start of the first term for which the Learner was due to enrol, fill the vacancy created by the Learner's withdrawal, a full Term's Fees shall be payable and shall become due and owing to the School as a reasonable cancellation fee. The Term's Fees shall be charged at the rate that would have been applicable for the said first Term.

If the Learner does take up a place with the School, the Deposit will form part of the general funds of the School. The School will be entitled to treat the interest generated from such Deposit as income. The Deposit will be refunded to you, without interest, on the Learner leaving or, at the School's discretion, credited to you, without interest, for the final payment of the fees or other sums lawfully due by the Parent to the School, on the Learner leaving.

PAYMENT OF FEES

The Parents, jointly and severally, have absolute responsibility for the payment of any Fees applicable to the Learner attending the School. The Parents also acknowledge that the Fees are payable in advance. Any Fee or other amounts of money owing by the Parents to the School not paid on or before the due date will bear interest at the maximum rate of interest for incidental credit prescribed from time to time in terms of the NCA, or at such lesser rate as the School determines from time to time in its sole discretion. Interest not paid to the School on or before the date in which payment is due in respect of which such interest accrues will bear further interest at the same rate. In addition to interest the School will be entitled to recover from the Parents default administration costs and collection costs, as contemplated in the NCA, including legal costs on the attorney and client scale and collection commission to the extent permitted by the NCA.

For the avoidance of doubt:

nothing in this clause 0 shall limit the rights of the School in respect of any Fees due and payable in terms of this Contract before and after any decision of the Head of School pursuant to clause 0;

the application of the provisions of this clause 0 shall not limit or reduce the remedies and recourse available to the School in terms of the common law, statute or this Contract.

The School Fees will be reviewed from time to time and may be increased by an amount which the School considers reasonable. The School will endeavour to give the Parents at least two calendar months' notice of any increase in the fees due for a particular term. The Parents have a right to cancel this Contract without penalty should the School Fees increase to an amount which the Parents no longer wish to pay, provided that the Parents give the School written notice of that intention within 7 (seven) days of the School's notification of an increase, failing which the cancellation provisions of clause 0 will apply, and the Parents will be required to provide a full term's notice or pay a term's fees in lieu of notice.

SECTION 18A INCOME TAX EXEMPTION FOR THE DONATION OF THE DEPOSIT

- 1.1 If, at the end of the term this Contract, the Parents elect to donate the Deposit to the School, the School, only insofar as it is registered as a Public Benefit Organisation as contemplated in the Income Tax Act, shall issue a receipt to the Parent for such donation, which qualify as a tax deductible donation for purposes of section 18A of the Income Tax Act.
- 1.2 Subject to any dispensation which may be granted by the Commissioner, the School shall distribute at least 50% (fifty per cent) of the value of any donation for which a certification as contemplated in clause 1.1 has been issued within 12 (twelve) months from the end of the financial year during which the relevant donation was received.

collect, store and process names, contact details and information relating to the Learner, and to such information being made available to other parents/guardians, staff or responsible persons engaged or authorised by the School for School-related purposes to the extent required for the purpose of managing relationships between the School, parents/guardians, and current learners as well as providing references and communicating with the body of former learners; and supply information and a reference in respect of the Learner to any educational institution which the Parents propose the Learner may attend. The School will take care to ensure that all information that is supplied relating to the Learner is accurate and any opinion given on his/her ability, aptitude and character is fair. However, the School cannot be liable for any loss the Parents or the Learner is alleged to have suffered resulting from opinions reasonably given, or correct statements of fact contained, in any reference or report given by the School.

LEARNER INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY DEVELOPED DURING THEIR TIME AT THE SCHOOL

The School acknowledges that the Learner may, during their time at the School, create, invent or develop Learner Intellectual Property. Any rights to the Learner Intellectual Property are not transferred to the School and shall remain the property of the Learner. To the extent that any Learner Intellectual Property is included in the circumstances contemplated in this Contract, the Parents, on behalf of the Learner, hereby grant the School a perpetual, fully paid-up, worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free, transferable right and licence to use and reproduce the Learner Intellectual Property to the extent reasonably necessary to give effect to the objectives contemplated in this Contract.

TERMINATION AND NOTICE REQUIREMENTS

For the avoidance of doubt, this Contract will terminate when the Learner completes the School's curriculum and any exit examination the School offer at the end of the Learner's schooling, unless otherwise terminated on the terms of this Contract. This Contract therefore has an indefinite term for the Primary School and High School respectively. Learners will not be automatically admitted to the high school on the basis of their primary school contract. A new enrolment contract will apply.

The Parents have the right to cancel this Contract at any time, for any reason, provided that you give the School a full term's notice, in writing, of this intention before the withdrawal of the Learner from the School. Alternatively, a full term's fees (including additional fees pro-rated for the term) is payable to the School in lieu of notice, and as a reasonable cancellation fee taking into account the nature of the educational services, capacity planning and reasonable potential to fill the vacancy. Such amount is due and payable on the first day of the term which would have been the final term if the appropriate notice had been given. Should the Parents have elected to pay annual School Fees or should any additional Fees have been paid in advance, those Fees will be credited in proportion to the terms remaining, less any amount payable in lieu of the appropriate notice.

The School also has the right to cancel this Contract at any time, for any reason, provided that it follows due process and gives the Parents a full term's notice, in writing, of its decision to terminate this Contract. At the end of the term in question, the Parents will be required to withdraw the Learner from the School, and the School will refund to the Parents the amount of any fees pre-paid for a period after the end of the term less anything owing to the School by you.

The School may cancel this Contract immediately if the Parents are in Material Breach of any of the Parents' obligations and have not (in the case of a breach which is capable of remedy) remedied the Material Breach within 20 (twenty) business days of a notice from the School requiring the Parents to remedy the breach. The School may, in addition, claim payment of all moneys then owing and damages equal to one term's Fees (as calculated at the time of cancellation) taking into account the nature of the services, capacity planning and reasonable potential to fill the vacancy, but crediting the amount of any pre-paid fees and refunding to the Parents any excess above such damages.

This clause has been drawn to my attention and I confirm that I understand and accept its legal consequences.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute concerning or arising out of this Contract must be resolved in terms of this clause 0.

In the event of any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement, then any Party may give written notice (indicating also that party's designated representative) (the Dispute Notice) to the other Party or Parties to initiate the procedure set out below.

The Parties shall first endeavour to settle the dispute by mediation. The Parties shall agree in writing on a mediator within 5 (five) Business Days of the Dispute Notice, the mediation shall take place in accordance with the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) Model Conciliation Rules in force at the time of the dispute and the mediator shall be appointed by Tokiso Dispute Settlement Proprietary Limited (Tokiso) and to the extent that Tokiso no longer exists, the mediator shall be appointed by the chairperson for the time being of the Association of Arbitrators (Southern Africa) or its successors-in-title.

If for any reason, including lack of co-operation by the Parties, a dispute is not settled by mediation within 30 (thirty) Business Days of the Dispute Notice or such longer period of time as may be agreed to in writing, then the dispute shall be determined by arbitration.

The Parties may agree in writing on the arbitrator and the arbitration procedure and, failing such agreement within 5 (five) Business Days of the expiry of the period referred to in clause 0, or such longer period of time as may be agreed to in writing, then the arbitration shall take place in accordance with the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules in force at the time of the dispute. The appointing authority in terms of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules shall be the chairperson for the time being of the Association of Arbitrators (Southern Africa).

Unless agreed otherwise by the Parties in writing: (i) the mediation and the arbitration (as applicable) shall be administered by the Parties; (ii) the mediation and the arbitration (as

This clause is a separate, divisible agreement from the rest of this Contract and will remain in effect even if this Contract is terminated, nullified, or cancelled for any reason.
